CHÂTEAU HORDOSSE IS A GEM!

The historical area of Gascony in south-west France has innumerable attractions with its rolling hills, broad valleys and bastide towns set well apart. The wines and cuisine are, of course, internationally famous. Fine Armagnac, pâté de fois gras and Roquefort cheese are all produced locally along with the best Bordeaux wines.

In Andiran, 4 km from the beautiful market town of Nerac, where Henri IV of France held court, and on the border of the departments of Lot et Garonne and Landes is the totally unique Château Hordosse. Approached by a private drive the charm and history of the château are immediately obvious.

The 15th century Tower, part of the original fortifications, adjoins the classical French château with spacious rooms and high ceilings.
